FOR ENGLISH STUDENTS OF THE CIVIL LAW.

The Latest Edition, in One Volume, 8vo, price 18s.

THE INSTITUTES of JUSTINIAN; Latin Text, chiefly that of HUSCHKE, with English Introduction, Translation, Notes, and Summary. By THOMAS COLLETT SANDARS, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, late Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. The Sixth Edition, revised.

"There are now extant many epitomes and analyses of Roman Law designed to aid students in their preparation for the laws of Court and other examinations; but we think anyone wishing to possess a fair knowledge of the subject would be very unwise to trust to one of these abridgments without studying the Institutes themselves which Mr. SANDARS has arranged in so admirable a form. Mr. SANDARS' book, however, needs no words of praise to recommend it to students of the Roman Civil Law, upon which subject it has long been a recognised standard text-book. It has now reached its sixth edition. This last is not a mere reprint; much of the work has been rewritten, and numerous alterations and improvements have been suggested to the Author by Mr. POSTE's edition of Justinus and by another recent work of considerable repute on Roman Law. In this edition, moreover, the text of HUSCHKE (Leipzig, 1865) has, with a few exceptions, been substituted for that of the KRIBGELS." LAW JOURNAL NEWSPAPER.

Acidity of the Stomach, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and Indigestion; and as the safest Aperient for Delicate Constitutions, Ladies, Children, and Infants.

DINNEFORD'S MAGNESIA.

BRAIN WORK is undoubtedly far more exhausting than bodily labour. Great thinkers, and persons burdened with cares, have the most need of those sustaining and restorative agents so mercifully supplied in the vegetable world, which, wisely used, go far to support the powers of nature. Dr. T. LAUDER BRUNTON says in the Contemporary Review:—"The late Lord DERBY, when translating Homer, was accustomed to eat BRANDIED CHERRIES;" and Dr. ALBERT J. BERNAYS says:—"If I come home after any worry I shall never hesitate to set myself right by taking my favorite and perfect remedy, five or six Brandied Cherries. In three or four minutes I find myself wonderfully soothed and quieted, and I have never experienced any ill effects." The essence and virtue of the Morella Cherry in a concentrated form, combined with the finest Cognac, is now to be found in that well-known and delicious Liqueur, "GRANT'S MORELLA CHERRY BRANDY," which, taken alone or with water, produces in a greatly increased degree all those good effects above described. The Liqueur may be procured through any Wine Merchant, at all Bars and Restaurants, and of the Manufacturer, THOMAS GRANT, Distiller, Maidstone.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC

Purifies and Enriches the Blood.
Strengthens the Nerves and Muscular System.
Promotes Appetite and Improves Digestion.
Animates the Spirits and Mental Faculties.
Thoroughly renews the general bodily health, and induces a proper healthy condition of the Nervous and Physical Forces.

PEPPER'S QUININE and IRON TONIC.

Bottles containing 32 measured doses, 4s. 6d.

In the preparation of this Tonic the greatest care is exercised. It is a faithful compound of Quinine, the active principle of Yellow Cinchona, or Peruvian Bark, blended with a refined trustworthy preparation of Iron, produced in a form which the experience of many years has proved the best. It offers a ready means of gaining the strength and other benefits afforded by Quinine and Iron, without any fear of ill consequences.—The name of J. PEPPER is signed in red ink on the label.

TARAXACUM and PODOPHYLLIN.—A fluid combination for Derangement of the Liver, particularly when arising from slight congestion. By gently stimulating the action of the liver and slightly moving the bowels, the heavy, drowsy feeling, with sensations of fullness, headache, pain beneath the shoulders, and other indications of Dyspepsia are removed. Taraxacum and Podophyllin is much safer than calomel or blue pill, and quite as effective for removing bile.—Prepared by J. PEPPER, 337 Tottenham Court Road, London, whose name must be on the label.—Bottles 2s. 6d. and 4s. 6d. each. Sold by all Chemists.

LOCKYER'S SULPHUR HAIR RESTORER.

MY COMMAND in SOUTH AFRICA, 1874-1878.

Comprising Experiences of Travel in the Colonies of South Africa and the Independent States. By General Sir ARTHUR THURLOW CUNYNGHAME, G.C.B., then Lieutenant-Governor and Commander of the Forces in South Africa. With Maps. 8vo, 12s. 6d. [This day.]

The TIMES says:—"It is a volume of great interest.....full of incidents which vividly illustrate the condition of the Colonies and the character and habits of the natives.....It contains valuable illustrations of Cape warfare, and at the present moment it cannot fail to command widespread attention."

SECOND THOUSAND.—2 vols. crown 8vo, cloth extra, price 18s.

BISMARCK IN THE FRANCO-GERMAN WAR.

An Authorised Translation, from the German of Dr. MORITZ BUSCH.

The TIMES of November 21 says:—"The publication of Bismarck's after-dinner talk, whether discreet or not, will be of priceless biographical value, and Englishmen, at least, will not be disposed to quarrel with Dr. Busch for giving a picture, as true to life as Boswell's 'Johnson,' of the foremost practical genius that Germany has produced since Frederick the Great."

The ATHENÆUM says:—"Their importance to historical students and to all who care for an insight into the inner complications of one of the most marvellous periods of modern history, and for a comprehension of the wonderful man figuring in the centre of it, is of the greatest. Nobody can understand the political history of the Franco-German War, nor the man Bismarck, its chief maker, who has not read the diary of the Reichskanzler's Boswell."

"One of the most amusing books which have appeared for some time.....The volumes contain a great deal of most unusual interest. It is not often that we are admitted so completely behind the scenes, especially during the life of the chief actor; and much as Prince Bismarck himself may have cause to regret the frankness of his candid friend, there is a strange fascination for the outside world in these very injudicious revelations."—John Bull.

The ODYSSEY of HOMER done into ENGLISH PROSE.

By S. H. BUTCHER, M.A., Fellow and Lecturer of University College, Oxford, and A. LANG, M.A., late Fellow of Merton College, Oxford. Crown 8vo, 10s. 6d.

"On the whole Mr. Butcher and Mr. Lang may be heartily congratulated on the success of their attempt. They have produced a work which will not only be appreciated by scholars, but will reproduce for those who are unable to read Homer in the original an unusually large measure of the Homeric power and charm."—Pall Mall Gazette.

By M. E. GRANT DUFF, M.P.—MISCELLANIES, POLITICAL and LITERARY. 8vo, 10s. 6d.

SPELLING REFORM from an EDUCATIONAL POINT of VIEW. By J. H. GLADSTONE, Ph.D., F.R.S., Member of the School Board for London. Crown 8vo, 1s. 6d.

SCHOOL GUARDIAN, January 26, 1878:—"He is an educationalist, and approaches the subject mainly from an educational point of view. We need hardly say that what could be said, from this point of view, he has said with much force and moderation."

EDUCATIONAL TIMES, March 1:—"The advocates of Spelling Reform will find in Dr. Gladstone's little work an excellent summary of the reasons which have been urged in favour of the change they recommend."

SCHOOL BOARD CHRONICLE, February 22:—"No one should pass judgment on the question of Spelling Reform before consulting this able and interesting book."

WESTMINSTER REVIEW, July:—"The great question of Spelling Reform is rapidly creating for itself a very considerable literature, to which Mr. Gladstone's little volume is a very valuable addition.....His estimate of the time and money that an alteration of our spelling system would save is exceedingly interesting."

"Mrs. Fetherstonhaugh, in her new book, evinces again her power of drawing the character of a bright-spirited and noble-minded girl. The lucidity of the author's plot and vivacity of her style contrast strongly with the melancholy of her story. It would be an incomplete notice of the book which omitted to mention the spirit with which she describes a run with the Greenishire hounds."

SERIAL ISSUE OF THE DICTIONARY OF ENGLISH LITERATURE,

By W. DAVENPORT ADAMS,
In MONTHLY PARTS, price 7d.
PART I. ready MARCH 25.
(To be completed in Fifteen Parts.)

This valuable and most useful Dictionary has been prepared to meet the wants of people of education and intelligence who are desirous of reading comprehensively and intelligently, but who may not have the assistance of well-equipped libraries. It condenses into one volume, consisting of Fifteen Monthly Parts, all the information that readers thus situated would be likely to require, as well as supplying the needs of those who are anxious merely to gain a few particulars in connexion with authors and their productions. The Work is one of ready reference rather than of criticism, an accumulation of facts rather than of opinions; yet it is rendered so generally interesting that it may be dipped into here and there with the certainty of something being found capable of giving pleasure as well as information.

WOOLSEY'S INTRODUCTION to the STUDY of INTERNATIONAL LAW. For Teachers and Students. Being the Fifth Edition.

IMPORTANT NEW WORK.
The HISTORY of RUSSIA, from its Origin to the Year 1877. By ALFRED RAMBAUD, Member of the Academy of Sciences of St. Petersburg. With Six Maps and some Illustrations. Translated by Mrs. L. B. LANG. With Genealogical Tables and Additions and Corrections by the Author. Two Volumes, demy 8vo, cloth extra, 34s.

Mr. W. R. S. RALSTON, in the Academy, says:—"We gladly recognise in the present volume a trustworthy history of Russia, one not based merely on what foreigners have written about it, but compiled by a scholar who is competent to deal with the works which Russian historians have lately produced. Mr. Rambaud has long been known as a sound authority upon all subjects connected with the great empire of which he has now written the history. The merits of his style are well known."

The Athenaeum says:—"It is beyond question the best complete history of Russia which has appeared in the West. In the author's power of seizing upon salient traits of character and selecting picturesque incidents, the book reminds us very much of Mr. Green's English History. We will venture to prophesy that it will become the work on the subject for readers in our part of Europe.... Mrs. Lang has done her work remarkably well."

Now ready, crown 8vo, cloth extra, 10s. 6d.

The RENAISSANCE of ART in FRANCE. By Mrs. MARK PATTISON. With 19 Steel Engravings. 2 vols. demy 8vo, cloth, price 32s.

The CIVILISATION of the PERIOD of the RENAISSANCE in ITALY. By JACOB BURCKHARDT. Authorised Translation by S. G. C. MIDDLEMORE. 2 vols. demy 8vo, cloth, price 24s.

"The whole of the first part of Dr. Burckhardt's work deals with what may be called the political preparation for the Renaissance. It is impossible here to do more than express a high opinion of the compact way in which the facts are put before the reader. . . . The second volume is, we think, more full and complete in itself, more rich in original thoughts than the first."—Saturday Review.

NICCOLO MACHIAVELLI and

HIS TIMES. By Prof. VILLARI, Author of "Life of Savonarola," &c. Translated by LINDA VILLARI. 2 vols. large post 8vo, price 24s.

"Prof. Villari prefaces his Life of Machiavelli with an elaborate historical introduction. . . . As a sketch of the Renaissance it is admirable. It is a masterpiece of condensation; the arrangement of the mass of materials leaves little to desire, and its style is singularly lucid."

The ANNOTATED BIBLE. Being a Household Commentary upon the Holy Scriptures, comprehending the Results of Modern Discovery and Criticism. By the Rev. JOHN HENRY BLUNT, M.A., F.S.A., Editor of "The Annotated Book of Common Prayer," "The Dictionary of Theology," &c., &c.

This work has been written with the object of providing for educated readers a compact intellectual exposition of the Holy Bible, in which they may find such explanations and illustrations of the Sacred Books as will meet the necessities of the ordinary, as distinguished from the laboriously learned, enquirer of the present day.

Great care has been taken to compress as much information as possible into the Annotations by condensed language, by giving the results of enquiry without adding the detailed reasonings by which those results have been arrived at, by occupying scarcely any space with controversy, and by casting much matter into a tabular form.

Every book has an Introduction prefixed to it, which gives some account of its authorship, date, contents, object, and such other particulars as will put the reader in possession of the best modern conclusions on these subjects. The Annotations are also illustrated by text maps and other engravings when necessary, and full-page coloured maps are added for the general illustration of Biblical Geography from the best authorities.

The Commentary is preceded by a General Introduction, which contains chapters on the Literary History of the Bible (illustrated by several facsimiles, and by specimens of English Bibles from the tenth to the seventeenth centuries), on the trustworthiness of the Bible in its existing form, the revelation and inspiration of Holy Scripture, the interpretation of Holy Scripture, and the liturgical use of the Bible. There are also special Introductions to the New Testament and the Apocrypha.

VOL. I. (668 pages.)—Containing the GENERAL INTRODUCTION, with Text and Annotations on the Books from GENESIS to ESTHER. 31s. 6d.

VOL. II. (720 pages.)—Completing the OLD TESTAMENT & APOCRYPHA. 31s. 6d.

VOL. III.—Containing the NEW TESTAMENT and GENERAL INDEX.
